Oyen Boy Scouts Receive Charter

Presentation made at social function held in Masonic hall, Friday, April 5. Scoutmaster Stewart presented with Warrant.

At a very enjoyable social function held in the Masonic hall last Friday evening, the Boy Scouts received their charter and Mr. Charles Stewart, scoutmaster, received his warrant.

The programme was opened by the singing of "O Canada". After a few remarks by the chairman Mr. J. B. Lowe, Mr. David A. Peck, a member of the Masonic committee sponsoring the Boy Scout movement in Oyen presented the charter to the boys, and Mr. Donald McKay made the presentation of the warrant to the Scoutmaster, who made suitable acknowledgement. Then followed fine addresses by Rev. C. M. K. Parsons, Rev. Father C. A. Lynett and Rev. E. F. Kemp, and short talks by Mr. R. J. Scott and Mr. W. V. Miller. Vocal solos were pleasingly rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nisbet.

After the serving of refreshments there was a short period of community singing led by Bob Nisbet with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Neid playing

WITH THE SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts are getting hats and neck 'chiefs' which they hope will be here over the week-end.

Some of the boys are also getting uniforms. Oh! Hot Dog!

Plans are being made to have a bonfire and rocket display in connection with the King's anniversary celebration, May 6.

Excel Ladies Aid Hold

Interesting Missionary Meeting

Excel Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. C. R. Gullekson, on Thursday, April 4. The missionary committee in charge arranged an excellent program with the following ladies taking part:

Mrs. A. J. Banks gave a splendid paper on missionary work in England under the heading of "A Monday Afternoon with Mrs. Clifford Rowntree." Another paper of interest on "Missionary Work in India" was given by Mrs. Littleford. A reading about "The Greatest Book in the World—The Bible" by Mrs. E. H. Church, was very uplifting. Another reading of interest was about the anniversary of the death of the Venerable Bede.

Just the right note was given at the end of a most interesting meeting by Mrs. C. Gullekson who read a delightful poem "Shine Just Where You Are".

Following the meeting a dainty luncheon was served. The next meeting of the aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Wetheral.

the accompaniments, and Rev. C. M. K. Parsons made a great hit with two humorous songs. The program was brought to a close by singing the national anthem.

The function was attended by 18 scouts and their scoutmaster, parents of the boys and members of Oyen Lodge No. 104, A. F. and A. M. and their wives.
